

Job posting – director

Draft 3/26/24

Heritage Hill State Historical Park currently seeks an Executive Director.

The Park is a fifty-six acre living history site in Green Bay, Wisconsin featuring over twenty-five buildings from the 17th – 20th centuries. Heritage Hill's mission is to enrich the lives of others by sharing Northeast Wisconsin's diverse cultural and historic ties that bind our communities together. This is achieved through traditional museum exhibits, costumed historical interpreters, and other immersive and innovative techniques.

The primary functions and responsibilities of the Director are:

- Development and finance
- Community relations
- Policy and planning
- Management and administration

Minimum qualifications:

- At least three years of significant leadership experience and demonstrated management success within a public, private, or preferably non-profit organization
- Proven experience creating public-private partnerships
- Strong collaborative and organizational skills and the ability to prioritize and direct multiple projects and tasks
- Able to work a flexible schedule that may include nights, weekends, or holidays
- Excitement about and passion for Heritage Hill's mission and vision
- Non-profit development and management experience desired
- The ability to communicate effectively and tactfully with a wide variety of constituents including those internally and externally

The Executive Director is the principal resource to the Board of Directors Executive Committee for Heritage Hill Corporation Legal Entity and is the public face of the Park. The Executive Director shall lead the strategic planning process and will partner with the Board to set goals and strategies, ensuring they are aligned with the organization's mission, activities, and strategic vision.

Compensation Range: $65,000 - $75,000

To Apply: Please send resumes to our HR partner, Anne Wettstein:
Anne@hrconsultingpartners.net